

Higher Education Emergency Relief Funds Disclosure

Carrington College Portland (OPEID 03042500) – Updated 3/31/22

Carrington College Portland (which includes the branch campus in Spokane, WA) staff signed and returned certification and agreement to provide Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students as part of the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF) (a)(4) program approved through the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act (CCRSAA) on March 26, 2021, and the American Rescue Plan on August 4, 2021.

The school received a total of $985,537 between the two HEERF disbursements, which was made available to students by the HEERF Committee according to the following eligibility rules:

For the period of March 31, 2021 to August 31, 2021

- The student was enrolled in an on-campus, online or blended program at a Carrington campus between December 27, 2020, and March 31, 2021, and
- The student completed an attestation that they had incurred expenses related to the COVID pandemic, including but not limited to cost of tuition, food, housing, health care (including mental health), or childcare.
- And, as of the date the student complete and return this attestation to the College they were:
 - Still enrolled at the College, or
 - Graduated from the program you were enrolled in on December 27, 2020, or
 - On an approved Leave of Absence that started on, or after December 27, 2020.

For the period of August 31, 2021 to December 31, 2021

- The student was enrolled in an on-campus, online or blended program at a Carrington campus as of the date of the application period, beginning either August 18,2021 or October 5, 2021.
- The student completed a web-based application where they attested that they had incurred expenses related to the COVID pandemic, including but not limited to cost of tuition, food, housing, health care (including mental health), or childcare.
- And, as of the date the student completed the web-based application they were:
 - Still enrolled at the College, or
 - Graduated from the program they were enrolled the date of the launch of the application period
 - On an approved Leave of Absence that started on or after December 27, 2022.

For the period of January 1, 2022 to Present

- The student is enrolled in a full academic program at Carrington starting between January 5, 2022 and April 5, 2022. Actively enrolled includes student attending a fully online program, a hybrid or blended program, or a fully residential program.
- The student has qualified expenses related to the COVID-19 pandemic. These expenses can include, but are not limited to cost of tuition, food, housing, health care (including mental health) or child care.

Higher Education Emergency Relief Funds Disclosure
Carrington College Portland (OPEID 03042500) – Updated 3/31/22

- The student has not already received a HEERF Emergency Grant from Carrington through the web-based application process during a previous enrollment.

As of March 31, 2022, the College received 746 valid attestations and applications from eligible students and has awarded $680,959.41 to those students. These funds have been allocated such that all eligible students would receive an award, with Pell Grant Recipients receiving award equal to 150% that of non-Pell Grant Recipients. It was possible for students receiving grants from the March to August period to receive an award from the August to December period, but not possible for students to receive multiple awards from the August to December period.

The College will distribute the remaining $304,577.59 to students by submitting a HEERF Emergency Grant attestation during their student financial aid packaging process. This process will remain in place until most of the funds are exhausted or expire on June 30, 2022.

Any questions related to either program can be directed to HEERFGrant@carrington.edu and should receive a reply within 48 hours.